VI. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Janice Haye – Sounds of the Caribbean

Ms. Haye announced the Sounds of the Caribbean event, held at Foss Park lake front, North Chicago, IL; from 10 a.m.-8:00 p.m. She explained the event and asked for sponsorship. Secondly, she encouraged others for the Golf Outing Fundraiser, Sunday, July 16, 2023 for Multiple Myeloma Awareness Foundation she had experienced and was a survivor. The event was located at the Foss Park Golf Course, 3124 Argonne Dr. Registration was at 10:30 a.m.; dinner and prizes issued at 4:00 p.m.; sign-up deadline was July 7, 2023 and she provided her contact information.

Alderman January commended Ms. Haye with her confidence of sharing the experience of Myeloma.

Ted Wilder – Former Fire Chief

Mr. Wilder asked to consider an Honorary Street in honor former Fire Chief Robert E. Sandahl Jr. and posted at 17th & Victoria St. He added Chief Sandahl was the first President with the Lake County Fire Chief Association when it was established.

The Mayor stated it was located in the 2nd Ward.

John Price – School Superintendent

The Mayor had extended Mr. Price time for public comments. Mr. Price expressed his gratitude of working with the City Staff and with communication. He gave a brief construction update: completing Phase III; demo external brick wall of the gym at Neal Math & Science Academy; interior rehab of the gymnasium; site restoration planting new athletic field weather prevailing targeted date of August 21, 2023. Internal additions; removable wall for additional security and LED Wall; NCCHS closed while roof was rehabbed including spaces for art, business and special needs life skills room; HVAC update; Abbvie volunteered their services with black chain-link fence to be replaced this summer; new parking lot ADA accessible; Yeager & Alexander Schools working at Forrestal School; defense grant was 80% rehab and construction cost; general contractor selection by next month. Strong naval support; former Lindberg preschool demo; 10-11 new classrooms including special education to offer pre-k preparation for kindergarten.

Alderman January appreciated Mr. Price's leadership and offered her assistance in the Forrestal Village area as Aldermen. The Mayor echoed sentiments of Alderman January and commended him for doing a great job with the students in District 187; he added that education started before kindergarten and a better chance of education.

Alderman Evans questioned status of Hart and Novak Schools; Mr. Price explained they were unusable. Rehabbed or demolished were options; gaining new ideas from the community; in process of Economic Development plan to partner with the City of North Chicago and Lindberg School was to be demolished with designs in process.

Rayon Edwards

Mr. Edwards asked why the aldermen were unaware of what was occurring; should already know; lack of communication in the community; attorney mistakes and high concerns of seniors at retirement home weren't safe. He expressed his disappointment.

Quanisha Lewis – Head Cheerleading Coach North Chicago High School

Ms. Lewis explained she was trying to purchase new uniforms with the growing team; only financially able to purchase uniforms every 3-4 years and district provided the cost with smaller number of cheerleaders; asking for donations. This was her 4th year as the coach; engaging youth in something more positive. The Mayor asked if any flyers; she acknowledged there were.

Alderman Smith questioned if she needed all new uniforms or additional (6); she would need new and different looser fitty flowing uniforms due to the complaints from visitors from the games. They complied the support and respect from the community wishes for more appropriate uniforms; the final number needed was $250x15= $3,750.

IX.

MISCELLANEOUSVARIOUS CONCERNS AND COMMENTS

- Alderman Evans clarified that the City Council has no control over all the Boards. Felt nothing was being accomplished by those that attempt to embarrass the City. Comments were supposed to assist in bettering the City. The people voted for those elected.
He announced an Old School Extravaganza, August 12, all were welcome and the cost was $35.
- Alderman Allen agreed with Alderman Evans regarding negative comments about North Chicago and said there were many positive projects in process.

- Alderman Smith commended the Fire and Police departments for assisting with a great fishing event in Zion. The children are the adults of tomorrow. He announced the 5th Ward 3rd Annual Block Party July 8th, 12p.m.-8p.m.
- Alderman January said the perception of her is she's negative but expressed that this was the 1st set of aldermen that work together. She respect the Mayor's seat, may not agree with everything but tries to stand firm on her beliefs and what is best for the City. There were issues.
- Alderman January questioned if the 911 issue with Forrestal had been resolved. Police Chief Lazaro Perez explained there were still calls being sent to Norfolk, Virginia because of the location of being on federal land (G.O. fenced); continuing to work toward a resolution.
- Janice Haye strongly expressed that North Chicago was making great improvements. Her aunt was a resident of Broadway Ave, previously drug infested; was now able to sit outside and feel comfortable. North Chicago is a beautiful place. Alderman January stated it was a team effort.

Mayor Rockingham agreed that it takes a team; the staff and Council work to make sure that things happen in North Chicago. Commended staff especially for making sure everything operates effectively.
