Celeste Flores, Director, Mano a Mano Resource Center; explained was seeking an organizer working specifically in the community of North Chicago. She suggested an attachment link to the agenda attachments assisting to engage the City. Alderman Allen noted that the City newsletter was in Spanish. The Mayor said to better engage with the Latina community the newsletter was in both English and Spanish.

VII. REGULAR AGENDA

7-1     CONSIDERATION/APPROVAL OF AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING REGULATIONS FOR SCHEDULED TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

Alderman Allen moved, seconded by Alderman Murphy to approve the Ordinance Adopting Regulations for Scheduled Transportation Services.

The Mayor explained the need of the item being placed on the agenda due to the need of the migrant situation. Attorney David Silverman explained the migrants were mainly from the state of Texas; the ordinance was to regulate the carriers; unscheduled drop offs could cause possible disruption to the City including services, government operations would be challenged; the couriers would be compelled to cooperate with the City ordinance. The ordinance requires those carriers (amending Title 5, Chapter 5, Section 25 – vehicle related businesses) to have a 72-hr. schedule period available to people using their services. It also identifies a drop off points within the City and establishes a fine that police can levy on unscheduled drops with a fine of $1,000 and not more than $5,000. It would require a 2/3 vote, 5-member approval including the Mayor's vote and would be immediately enforceable due to its public urgency. In summary upon ordinance adoption, it would hopefully be a quality enforcement tool for transportation operators compelled cooperation with the City and police department.

Alderman January asked North Chicago was going be a final destination for the migrants. Concerned with migrants arriving sick unvetted and high concern that North Chicago had many elderly population and what was to being done to mitigate from illness.

Chief of Staff Greg Jackson explained as quickly as it was determined that there was activity of the migrants coming in the cloak of darkness; he directed staff to develop a contingency plan on how to respond and emergency services worked together to establish that North Chicago would be a pivot point returning those individuals to Chicago's designated landing zone. North Chicago was unable to accommodate their needs and portions of Lake County, IL. He added had prepared a plan if needed and worked closely with the intergovernmental partners.

Alderman January questioned if it also applied to the train. Attorney Silverman stated it applied to any common carrier transport mainly concerned with the unscheduled bus drop-offs. Pace Bus's requirement was no drop-offs between 1 a.m.-5:00 a.m. Alderman January asked if the drop-off locations would be known. Chief of Staff Jackson indicated the temporary shelter arrangement was with Foss Park District; he has extended to other partners; would provide a copy to each council member for an overview. Alderman January suggested a fee for scheduled and unscheduled, lot of funds for shelter, food, and emergency services. Attorney Silverman stated was a constitution interstate commerce clause engaged indirectly. The regulations were established and designed to avoid the Interstate Commerce Clause issues. She informed him that a Columbian Family had moved into housing seeking donations.

The Mayor clarified was aware of the presence of some migrants though unable to track the numbers. Alderman January suggested a joint collaboration with the information. He stated was attempting to track through Lake County and other organizations. There would be various agencies impacted. She estimated 5,500 homeless veterans in the community and unable for services due to the influx of immigrants; need to take care of those here especially those that have served the country. Alderman January requested her concern was directed to the Naval Captain. The Mayor stated that it would be directed to the Chief of Staff relaying her issue to the captain.

Alderman Smith questioned clarification of procedures after temporary housing; the Mayor explained they would be placed on a train to Chicago landing zone. Alderman Smith asked the plan if they attempt to stay in North Chicago. Celeste Flores, Mano a Mano Director explained the migrants were to apply for asylum legally and buses were now being sent to suburbs. In Chicago they would be assisted with applying for asylum and housing; it was up to asylum seekers to keep up with the process which was a limited time. All the organizations were in Chicago, IL.

Alderman Smith questioned how situations were monitored accordingly if they leave the location. Alderman Jackson explained the migrants had handlers responsible for the numbers of migrants and with their transportation to Chicago. After arrival, the goal was to transport to Chicago landing zone to be processed. At this time, there weren't any issues. Ms. Flores clarified couldn't prevent people from moving; she encouraged them to follow the legal process providing asylum status.

Alderman January said realistically there were some people that won't follow it legally and high concern of citizen safety in the interim of transferring.

Alderman Smith asked how it was monitored in the early morning hours; the Mayor stated would receive a phone call from one of the police officers. Chief of Staff Jackson explained physical observations by the patrol officers at the (2) Metra Train Stations including Great Lakes; police staff were directed to observe main thoroughfares especially from expressways summarizing physically on the street transparency, mainly containment as the people arrive. The city's responsibility was to treat everyone humanely, they were unprepared for a different climate with some hungry and sick. The City of North Chicago had to ensure the numbers of arrivals, the same were transported and transferred to the Chicago landing zone. There they would be best serviced and supported. Chicago was the "final destination" for the asylum seekers. The City's plan was well planned and for other strategic partners.

Alderman January emphasized the need for citizens to be aware of the drop-off sites in case they needed to inform the police if they witness drop-off. It should also be well communicated to the residents. Alderman Smith included the need of police training for the type of potential mental issues. Chief of Staff Jackson knew of police de-escalation training routinely and they were well-skilled; mental health was another tough issue.
