VI. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Charlotte Burns

She was appreciative for the service and named the Aldermen involved: Coleman, Evans, Allen and January

- Housing concern in the 2nd Ward
- Worked at the Kukla Towers and problems when dispatched; concerned of lives
- Her family owned much land and suggested a moratorium with the landowner. Felt her family should have input with how the land is used.
- Concerned with Health Care Workers fearing to assist due to drugs and crime issues at that Kukla Towers. She clarified she was accompanied by the State Police in other areas. The landline phones were operating only on one side of the building and were highly concerned. Emergency response should be in every unit.

Charles January Jr.

He acknowledged his wife with her term of 12 years as an Alderman. He announced since 2017 that Woodland Apartments would be acquired by Rosalind Franklin; because the method of how it was handled, there was no citizen input. The system needed to change and there needed more transparency in the City. He disagreed the Mayor should be praying and directed it to the aldermen or pastor. There was a possibility of a ward reduction; the Mayor was a good person though not in the position as a Mayor, no benefit to the town. He disagreed with paying $180,000 to one person's salary and the average citizen in North Chicago does not earn $60,000.

Elaine Collins

She thanked Mrs. Donna Kalinoski, she felt Ms. Kalinoski deserved a referendum to celebrate her. She welcomed those to attend her prayer meeting, April 26, at her home 45 S. Spruce Dr; 6 p.m.; she encouraged all to attend.

Carmecia Hawthorn

Ms. Hawthorn was present to spread cheer and joy with the following:

- Easter Egg Hunt – April 12th for the children and Adult
- Lake County Girls Flag Football Clinic – April 5th; 12-2:30 p.m.
(Sponsored by the Chicago Bears)
- Spring Junior Golf
- Chicago style stepping classes
- Eagles Martial Arts
- Boots Up Line dance; started March 31st 6:00 p.m.
- Cheerleading
